

The Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies, the Hebrew
University of Jerusalem and
The Halbert Exchange Program, University of Toronto

are pleased to announce the

Halbert Annual Post-Doctoral Fellowship at the University of Toronto in Canada for 2020-2021

INSTRUCTIONS:

The Halbert Post-Doctoral Fellowship is open to graduates from the faculties of humanities, social sciences, social work, education, law and business administration at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem who will fulfill all requirements for their doctoral degree by August 31, 2019. This post-doctoral fellowship is also open to graduates who have completed their doctoral dissertation no more than three years prior to the date of their application.

This fellowship is intended for emerging scholars seeking to enhance professional connections and build networks with scholars at the University of Toronto.

One fellowship in the sum of up to 50,000 Canadian dollars will be offered for one academic year. Decisions regarding applications will be made on a competitive basis in a joint meeting between the respective academic committees of both institutions.

Your application for the Halbert Post-Doctoral Fellowship for study in Canada must include all relevant documentation listed below (items 1 to 7). These documents should be submitted together as one application package. The application package must be submitted to the Halbert Centre no later than February 20, 2020.

Please address the application package to the Halbert Centre's Administrative Coordinator, Diana Munayer:

mSCANADA@mail.huji.ac.il

Your application will be judged according to the following criteria:

- Overall academic excellence
- The importance of studying in the University of Toronto for your research.
- A letter of invitation from an academic sponsor in your field at the University of Toronto supporting the application.
- Completion of doctoral dissertation no more than three years prior to the submission of the fellowship application; or a statement from your supervisor indicating that you will fulfill all requirements for doctoral degree by 31 August 2020.

Please note: priority will be given to candidates who have not yet held a post-doctoral fellowship.

DOCUMENTS TO INCLUDE:

1. Application Form

The application form can be found on the Halbert Centre's website <http://canadianstudies.huji.ac.il/> under Grants and Scholarships. For the proposal abstract, you may find it convenient to cut and paste from your word processor.

2. Detailed Program of Work

a. Your program of work should not exceed 1,500 words in Times New Roman, 12 point font, and 1.5 spacing. Each page should be numbered consecutively and include your name and "Halbert Post-Doc Fellowship" at the top right-hand corner. The proposal should be written for general academic readers and not for specialists in your field.

b. Your detailed program of work should include:

- Abstract of about 250 words
- Research topic and the relevant literature review
- The questions and goals of the proposed research
- The methodology you intend to use (sample, data gathering method, data analysis plans)
- The way in which the project fits into the existing literature
- The potential contribution of the project
- The importance of studying at the University of Toronto for your research.
- The proposed strategy for the dissemination of your research.
- The distinction between the current project and the PhD dissertation
- If the research involves human subjects (e.g. interviews, questionnaires), you will need to apply for approval by the appropriate ethics committee at the University of Toronto.

3. Bibliography

Your bibliography should not exceed two pages in Times New Roman, 12-point font and 1.5 spacing. You need to include only those works most relevant to your research project.

4. Three Letters of Reference

Each letter must be sent separately by the referee to mscanada@mail.huji.ac.il. One of the letters of reference must be from your dissertation supervisor.

5. Current Curriculum Vitae — no more than two pages in length

6. Original Graduate Transcript

Please include a current transcript from all universities in which you have done your graduate (M.A. and Ph.D.) work.

7. A letter from a prospective supervisor at the University of Toronto confirming commitment to supervise your work should your application be successful.