

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

The Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies

is pleased to announce the

Halbert Exchange Post-Doctoral Fellowship at

University of Toronto for 2018-2019

The Halbert Exchange Post-Doctoral Fellowship is open to Hebrew University doctoral candidates studying in either the Humanities, Law, Social Work, or Social Sciences departments who will complete their Ph.D. by Fall 2018. Information about the program and application forms can be found on the Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies website - <http://canadianstudies.huji.ac.il> under "Grants and Scholarships – Munk Centre Exchange." The value of the fellowship is CAD 35,000.

Please note that applicants must submit their application by email (in PDF format) to the Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies no later than Monday, January 15, 2018 in order to be considered for the 2018-2019 fellowship. The applications will then be reviewed and evaluated by a committee at the Munk School of Global Affairs, University of Toronto that will make the final decision regarding awarding the fellowship. Please note that the Halbert Centre does not take part in the decision making process. Applicants who are already receiving, or who will receive, Post-Doctoral support, are required to note this in their application forms.

For further information about the fellowship, please contact Olga Kesarchuk by email <mailto:halbert.munk@utoronto.ca> or Tel: 1-416-946 89 38
