The Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies is pleased to announce the
Israeli-Canadian Faculty Collaboration Grant 2019-2020

The Israeli-Canadian Faculty Collaboration Grant is open to tenured and non-tenured (with teken) faculty members of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. This program is designed to facilitate scholarly exchanges on topics with significant Canadian content between faculty of the Hebrew University, and faculty affiliated with recognized higher education institutions in Canada. The program may also be utilized by individual Israeli scholars who do not have a Canadian partner, but can demonstrate either substantial need for their academic agenda to be conducted in Canada or significant Canadian content in their academic agenda. The grant will consist of a contribution towards international airfare and relevant expenses for a total maximum amount of $7,500 (CD).

Utilization of the grant is valid for a period of 12 months, beginning in October 2019. The budget will be managed by the Halbert Center, according to the budgetary details stated in the grant proposal.

Further information about the program and application forms can be found on the Canadian Studies website, <http://canadianstudies.huji.ac.il>, under "Grants and Scholarships" of the Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies.

Scholars at the Hebrew University who have completed their Ph.D. degrees within the last seven years will be given priority in allocating the program grants.

Please note that candidates must submit their application by e-mail to the Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies by February 21, 2019 in order to be considered. In some cases, the Halbert Centre may request letters of recommendation. These must be sent directly by the referees to the Halbert Centre by e-mail to mscanada@mail.huji.ac.il

Applicants for the grant will be informed of the approval or rejection of their requests by the end of March 2019.
