

The Halbert Centre is willing to sponsor and innovative projects relevant to Canadian Studies and with significant Canadian content that is not included in any of our categories. At the present we are willing to consider one project per year budgeted up to CD 3,000. Dates for submission are open throughout the year with 2 dead lines: One the beginning of the first semester and the other one at the beginning of the second semester. Once a project is approved the next opening for such projects would be in the following year.
