CALL FOR PAPERS

GRANT PROGRAM FOR GRADUATE STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN CONFERENCES IN CANADA

The Halbert Centre for Canadian Studies is pleased to announce the Grant Program for Graduate Students at the Hebrew University to Participate in a Conference or to give a talk in Canada held by a Canadian university. This program aims to support graduate students at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem from the social sciences, humanities, law and social work. The program is open to graduate students at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

The maximum grant amount to be awarded is 1,500 CAD (Canadian dollars). Each student is eligible to receive this grant only once.

Submission Deadline: February 29, 2024.

Applicants will receive notification of the decision during the second semester.

Applications will be processed on a "first come, first served" basis until the quota is fully allocated. Approval is subject to financial confirmation. Please check with the center if the grant is still available, even if you missed the deadline.

For further details and to submit your application, please visit the Halbert Centre Application Website.

Applicants with questions are welcome to contact us via email at mscanada@mail.huji.ac.il.
